Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance. "I pledge allegiance..."

Good morning everyone! Today's verse is Psalm 119:73, "Your hands have made me and formed me. Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments." The psalmist declares that God's own hands created him. What a great thought! If God did indeed create each one of us the same way that he created Adam out of the dust of the earth, then God must see each one of us as His work of art! Another place in the Bible says that we are God's masterpiece. What a beautiful image! We need to understand that we are all a one of a kind creation that can never be replaced in the sight of our Father.

Let's Pray...

A reminder for Seniors: The senior sweatshirt order forms and money are due today. Please turn these into the office.

Homecoming Court rehearsal will be at 2 o'clock today. Please come directly to the gym at that time.

Don't forget the Homecoming Dance on Saturday night, from 7 – 10 o'clock at the Lacey Community Center. Corban Phillips will be there to take photos.

Tomorrow during second break, the junior class is selling fudgesicles for $1 each, candy canes for 50¢ each, frozen chocolate-dipped bananas for $1 each, and iced chocolate for $1, $2, or $3 each depending on the desired size. Bring money and support the junior class!

Student leaders will be coming around at the beginning of 2nd period to count participation for Throw-back Thursday. During lunch today we will have a game. The game points and dress-up participation points will all go on class charts. Tomorrow is Spirit Friday. Wear Navigator gear or school colors of blue, teal, and white.

Next Monday, December 11th, plan to come to the chapel at 7 o'clock to enjoy our student musicians in their Christmas Concert. It's always a great evening!

In Sports: Tomorrow night we have our homecoming games against Chief Leschi. During halftime we will crown our Homecoming King and Queen. Come out for the celebration and cheer on our teams!

Have a great day!
